 FREESTYLE LIBRE FAMILY

This month's focus: Our FreeStyle Libre family of continuous glucose monitors. The data our sensors provide can have a huge impact. All that information comes from the tiniest of places, a flexible filament that is only the width of about three human hairs! Learn how FreeStyle Libre is leading the way.

... OF YOUR SEAT

Those are the words heart failure survivor Laura Huber remembers hearing from her medical team just before she was taken into surgery to receive her HeartMate II left ventricular assist device (LVAD). After surgery, everything changed. "I remember waking up that night after surgery, and the first time I looked in the mirror. Seeing the color back in my face was when it hit me: I was really sick, and this device is really making a difference." Check out Laura's story to see just how big a difference it continues to make.
